Two Ways To Go

A few months ago I heard of some sad news from an acquaintance that I hadn't seen in a while. Evidently this person had made some poor choices/decisions that were negatively affecting his life and the lives of those close to him in a big way. The story of my friend caused me to take a look at what the Bible says of how we either choose to follow God completely, or we don't. Two ways to go.

In Jay Adams' book, "A Call to Discernment" he writes, "From Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden with its two trees (one allowed, one forbidden) to the eternal destiny of the human being in heaven or in hell, the Bible sets forth two, and only two, ways: God's way, and all others." The Bible is very clear that we either belong to God or we don't. We are either saved or we are lost, we either choose the wide path which leads to destruction or the narrow path which leads to life. (Matthew 7:13-14) We either choose to believe that Jesus Christ is the only way to God (John 14:6) or we choose not to believe it. We either choose to love God's Word (the Bible) and live our lives accordingly, or we don't. And yet I believe with all my heart that God is loving and patient and continues to call out to those who haven't chosen Him, to consider His son Jesus, who gave his life to save us all. But by not choosing God's son, we, like Adam and Eve, are choosing death and giving up life. And like my friend, by not choosing to follow God completely, we must face the consequences of our own choices. -scott

*I will sing of my Redeemer and his heavenly love for me;
he from death to life has brought me,
Son of God, with him to be.
Sing, O sing of my Redeemer!
With his blood he purchased me;
on the cross he sealed my pardon,
paid the debt, and made me free.*
