January 2013

Happy New Year and many blessings to you all for 2013! We have enjoyed just resting this past week as we had a very busy Christmas season of singing. We praise God for protecting us as we travelled and keeping us all healthy. In addition to our regular nursing home singing schedule, we kicked off our first of 8 Christmas singing events with a concert on November 11 and finished with our last concert on Dec. 30. Taylor was home from college and able to join us for our last 2 Christmas concerts, and it's always a blessing to have all 4 kids sing together with us again. I'm sure our days are numbered for that. ☺

We spent much of October and November preparing and shopping for our big Truth Singers Christmas party held on Dec. 6. We are so thankful to God for all His provisions in providing sponsors in order for all our Truth Singers and staff workers to receive gifts. Thank you to all of you who took part in sponsoring a special needs adult! It was an amazing evening as we had 100 Truth Singers attend, 60 staff workers, and about 300 people in all fill the church gymnasium. We especially enjoyed singing Silent Night with all the Truth Singers as we turned off the lights and they lit up the room with their new glow necklaces. We are so grateful for the opportunity God has given us to minister to these incredible individuals, and we thank you for sharing and taking part in this ministry with us.

FINANCIAL CONCERNS:

Our ministry has grown tremendously over the past few years, but our financial support has pretty much stayed the same. We continue to be in need of more monthly support in order to successfully manage our expanding Truth Singers and FCA groups, concert/equipment needs, ministry taxes, and to cover travelling and personal, family expenses. We appreciate the special year-end gifts we received and all our monthly supporters. Thank you for considering how you may also be a part of our ministry to share Christ's love with others.

Praises and Prayers:

Praise for good weather, travel, and health as we had many concerts in December

Pray for renewed strength, wisdom, and vision for ministry

Pray as we resume FCA on January 16 and Truth Singers January 17

Pray for creativity for Scott as he works in the studio writing/recording new songs

Pray for encouragement and daily strength for the elderly in the many nursing homes/assisted living places we go to

Pray as we marriage mentor another couple

Pray for opportunities and boldness to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with others

2012 contribution receipts for tax purposes have been enclosed. Receipts are required for gifts $250 or more. If you would still like a receipt and did not receive one, please let us know and we would be happy to send you one. All gifts given to SKMM are tax-deductible. Thank you for partnering with us! We are blessed by your support.
